Serving the Metropolises of Detroit and Pittsburgh

DEADLINE EXTENDED
FOR 2017 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS

On May 20, 2017, the Federation Council voted to extend the deadline for applications for this year's MEFGOX Memorial Scholarships until Thursday, June 22nd.

Candidates for scholarships must be Greek Orthodox Church musicians of a Federation Parish in good standing with MEFGOX Stewardship who are graduates of the twelfth grade when the scholarship is awarded.

The Scholarship Trustees will take the following into consideration when reviewing applications:

- Applicant's educational objectives in music
- Applicant's participation in church music and Federation activities
- Written recommendation by the applicant's parish priest and choir director and/or parish church music representative
- Results of applicant's high school record, awards, and experiences
- Applicant's need for financial assistance
- Conclusions drawn by the Trustees from a personal interview with the applicant, if such an interview is possible

Application materials are available on the MEFGOX website (disregard the May 1st deadline date on the forms):
