The 2017 MEFGOX Memorial Scholarship awards went to:

Socrates Papageorgiou, from Ann Arbor, Michigan has been a member of the St. Nicholas church choir of Ann Arbor, MI since about the age of nine. He is also a member of the parish dance group, altar boy, and Epistle Reader. In school, Socrates was a member of various school vocal groups National Honor Society and sports teams. His college Glee Club traveled all around the U.S. and South Africa. Socrates is the recipient of the George Georgantas Memorial Scholarship and is attending University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Victoria Martine, from Zionsville, Indiana has been a member of the Holy Trinity Carmel church choir since around the age of fifteen. She is part of GOYA, church dance group, founder and president of the Greek club, and a GOYA basketball captain. While in high school, she was part of the chamber choir, ladies cadet choir, dinner theater program, drama club, National Honor Society, the National Spanish Honor Society, speech and debate captain, and sang the national anthem. Victoria is the recipient of the Hadgis/Amerdes Memorial Scholarship and will be attending Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana.

Maria Cook, from Toledo, Ohio has been involved with the Holy Trinity choir since around age six. She is not only involved in the choir, but Maids of Athena, Hellenic Dance group, and volunteered at the Metropolis summer camp. Maria played the violin in the concert orchestra, and chamber orchestra. She was also part of student council, student government and worked two jobs. Maria is the recipient of the MEFGOX Memorial Scholarship will be attending University of Toledo, studying business and human resources, for an eventual Juris Doctorate degree.