

The 2018 MEFGOX Memorial Scholarship awards went to:

Victoria Martine, from Zionsville, Indiana has been a member of the Holy Trinity Carmel, Indiana church choir since around the age of fifteen. She is part of GOYA, church dance group, founder and president of the Greek club, and a GOYA basketball captain. While in high school, she was part of the chamber choir, ladies cadet choir, dinner theater program, drama club, National Honor Society, the National Spanish Honor Society, speech and debate captain, and sang the national anthem. Victoria is the recipient of the MEFGOX Memorial Scholarship and is attending Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana.

Alexa Kalasz, from Livonia, MI has been active member of the Sts. Constantine and Helen church choir in Westland, MI since a very young age. She has not only been a choir singer, but member of several music theater groups and vocal groups that has toured Canada and Europe. Alexa has helped on church productions, Greek school, Diocese summer camps and the Heidelberg Project. Alexa is the recipient of the MEFGOX Memorial Scholarship and is attending Wayne State College in Detroit, MI.

Theodora Constantine from Poland, OH has been very involved in the church of St. John the Forerunner of Boardman, OH. She not only has been in the choir a very young age, but GOYA, parish dance group, and taught music a Metropolis summer camp. In addition, she has been part of the high school basketball and track teams, marching band, National Honor Society, French National Honors Society, student council and was school valedictorian. In college he has been in concert choir, chamber choir, acapella choir and toured Europe and the northeast U.S. Theodora is the recipient of the George Georgantas Memorial Scholarship and is attending Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, PA.

Nicole Tank from North Canton, OH has been involved in at the St. Haralambos church in Canton, Ohio, and music since around age 8. She is not only involved in the St. Haralambos Jr. and Sr. choir, but was accepted into the Jackson School for the Visual Arts in high school. In addition, she was on the softball team, cross country team, the theater group and the National Art Honor Society. Her volunteer work included the Capital Humane Society, Epona Horse Rescue, UNL Pre-Vet Club and worked as an employee at the Hillcrest Animal Clinic. Nicole is the recipient of the Mike Hadgis/Mary Ameredes Memorial Scholarship and is attending University of Nebraska-Lincoln in Lincoln, NE.

All Past and present Scholarship winners at 2018 convention

